

Major Motorsport Attracts Huge Interest at Autosport Show 2013

Major Motorsport launched the 2013 Season at the annual Autosport International Show held at the National Exhibition Centre in Birmingham.

An estimated 82,000 visitors attended the four day show, with an audience from over 50 countries.

Major Motorsport had 2 cars on display. Simon Mauger's iconic Mk2 Escort featured on the Millington Engine Stand, which was awarded a trophy for being the best presented stand in the Historic hall- an added highlight for the weekend!

The newest Micra built for Eliot Stevens to compete in the Junior Formula 1000 Championship was also on display on our own stand, alongside Humphris Oxford who specialise in Nissan rally parts.

Both cars had a huge amount of interest, and were the subject of many fans photographs. This was a fantastic way of launching the 2013 season and with both cars carrying decals of all our existing partners' decals, as well as a few new ones...
